

TUNNEL- DEFO

Program TUNNEL DEFO manages the data of deformation measurement. Results are list of displacement, different time/displacement plots and plot of cross sections showing displacement.

Input: ASCII file with measured absolute coordinates. Point numbers will not be taken over. The allocation to a special deformation point is automatically done by transformation.

All parameters can be changed via software.

Plot as cross-section

